Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named JAMES, about 22 years of age; his fore teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat. he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.
J. H. WASHINGTON.
Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against harboring or carrying off said fellow.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment be can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.
Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1819

From the Poetical Magazine.

MORNING.

Slowly from the sleeping vale,
See the misty volumes rise,
O'er the heathy summit sail,
There co-mixing earth and skies.
See before the god of day,
Fly the shades of sable night;
Ev'ry songster on the spray,
Blithly hails returning light.
Chief of all, the early lark,
Quitting for a while his young,
Soars amid the heav'ns—and, hark!
Sweetly swells his matin song.
Peasants, from their beds of rest,
Hasten o'er the dripping heath;
Joyful view the glowing east
Tinge the valley far beneath.
Sportive, on the dark brown hill,
Tender lambs delight to play;
Now beside the stretching rill,
Now to distant verdure stray.
Cheering is the passing gale
To the pallid cheek of wo,
Wafting, fragrant from the vale,
Ev'ry sweet the flow'rs bestow.

APPROPRIATE COSTUME.

A meanly dressed performer in London beginning the part of Mithridates, in Racine's celebrated play of the same name—

"At length, after a year, I again see you Arbate,"

Somebody from the pit replied very pointedly,

"With the same stockings and the same cravat."

NATURAL HISTORY OF THE MONKEY.

Let a monkey be chained, (says the Gallia Gazette) so that you may observe his motions minutely—look him in the face, and he will turn it from you—hold his head still, and he will turn away his eyes—approach him so near as to force yourself upon his vision, he immediately covers his eyes with his hands. Just the same power has prejudice to blind the human mind to evidence, so that on viewing the conduct of some people, one might be tempted to exclaim,

"Men are but monkies of a larger growth."

ALEXANDER SELKIRK:

The original Robinson Crusoe.

He was born at Largo, in the north of Scotland, in 1796. Having gone to sea in his youth, and in 1703 being sailing master of the ship Cinque Ports, captain Stradling, bound for the South Seas, he was put on shore on the island of Juan Fernandes, as a punishment for mutiny. In that solitude he remained for four years and four months, from which he was at last relieved and brought to England by captain Woods Rogers. He had with him in the island, his clothes and bedding, with a firelock, some powder, bullets and tobacco; a hatchet, knife, kettle, his mathematical instruments, and a bible. He built two huts of pimento trees, and covered them with long grass, and in a short time lined them with skins of goats, which he killed with his musket, so long as his powder lasted (which was at first but a pound); when that was spent, he caught them by speed of foot. Having learned to produce fire by rubbing two pieces of wood together, he dressed his victuals in one of his huts, and slept in the other, which was at some distance from the kitchen. A multitude of rats often disturbed his repose by gnawing his feet and various parts of his body, which induced him to feed a number of cats for his protection. In a short time, these became so tame that they would lie about him in hundreds, and soon delivered him from his enemies, the rats. Upon his return, he declared to his friends, that nothing gave him so much uneasiness as the thoughts, that when he died, his body would be devoured by those very cats he had with so much care tamed and fed. To divert his mind from such melancholy thoughts, he would dance and sing amongst his kids and goats, at other times retire to devotion. His clothes and shoes were soon worn out by running through the woods; in the want of shoes he found little inconvenience, as the soles of his feet became so hard that he could run every where without difficulty; as to his clothes, he made for himself a coat and cap of goat skins, sowed with little thongs of the same, cut in proper form with his knife; his only needle was a nail. When his knife was worn to the back, he made others as well as he could, of some iron hoops that had been left on shore, by beating them thin and grinding them on stones. By his long seclusion from intercourse with men, he had so far forgot the use of speech, that the people on board of captain Rodgers's ship could scarcely understand him, for he seemed to speak his words by halves. The chest and musket which Selkirk had with him on the island, are now in the possession of his nephew, John Selkirk, weaver at Largo.

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 5.

HEALTH OF BALTIMORE.

Twenty-five new cases of fever were reported in that city, for the 24 hours ending on Saturday morning; and eleven new cases for the 24 hours ending on Sunday morning.

HEALTH OF BOSTON.

The Board of Health officially announced on the 27th Sept. "that the town of Boston was at that time wholly free from any contagious or malignant disease.

From the New-York Daily Advertiser.

We observe it stated in a number of newspapers from various sections of our state, that letters from New York, as well as the statements of persons arriving in the country, announce that the fever in this city is much worse than the reports of the Board of Health represent it to be. That such reports find their way into country towns is not at all to be wondered at, for there are many persons who would not think the intelligence respecting the late fever in this city worth communicating to their country friends, provided they were strictly confined to the truth.—There is another class of persons who delight in making false statements, and who imagine that the more frightful the intelligence which they carry home to their neighbors, the greater will be the interest to hear it related. One case of malignant disease in this city is magnified into ten before it reaches one hundred miles, and as a story never loses by travelling, it will amount to fifty cases in a distance of one hundred miles more. We can assure persons in the country, that the only correct intelligence respecting the fever in this city is to be derived from the daily reports of the Board of Health. No other can be depended on. From the great respectability of this body, their prudent measures and energy of character, as developed from the commencement of the alarm, their reports are received here by all classes of citizens with entire confidence.

[The exaggeration of which the Daily Advertiser complains is not limited to New-York. Our citizens well remember the ludicrous reports which every stranger from the country would assure us were circulating, a few days since, respecting the health of Alexandria. Many good people did really believe that a malignant fever raged here, and it was said that the inhabitants were dying off rapidly—at least ten a day—that the utmost secrecy was observed, and that great care was taken to bury them in the night!!!] [Alex. Gaz.

The result of the Ward Elections in Philadelphia, on Friday last, for Inspectors of the General Election, gives a total of 1573 federal votes, and 1329 democratic.

We present to our readers to-day the first Bill of Mortality ever compiled, by legal authority, in this city. It affords a favorable view of the health of the city during confessedly the most unhealthy month of the year. During the space of thirty days, in a population of about thirteen thousand, of whom perhaps one half are not natives of the town, but collected from every quarter of this country and of other countries, there have died, of diseases peculiar to the season, but three adults; two of typhus and one of bilious fever. We doubt whether there is any settlement, of the same extent, in the country, of which the same can be said.

The establishment of a Health Office is of recent date, and we are indebted for it to the present Council. It is but just, however, to say, that much is due to our Health Officer, who strongly recommended the measure to the Corporation, and cheerfully performs without compensation the duties devolved on him by this appointment. [Nat. Int.

A Census of the White Persons in the State of South Carolina, has been recently taken, according to a law passed at the last session of the Legislature. The number is reported at 231,838; which, compared with the enumeration at the Census of 1810, presents an increase of 14,356, in the free white population of the state. [Ibid.

Portland, (Maine,) Sept. 14.

A NOBLE ACT.

With pleasure we record the noble and manly exertions of Mr. Zebedee Polleys, a young man of this town, in rescuing from a watery grave the son of capt. Lemuel Moody.

On Wednesday last, while amusing himself, with two other lads, in a small float on Back Cove river, they were upset and left to their fate; two of the number providentially reached the shore, while the one above-mentioned struggled and sunk, in view of several women at a distance. Mr. P. being informed of the circumstance, launched a canoe and hastened as near as he could judge, to the spot. Being unacquainted with swimming, he with great presence of mind and fortitude, thrust his oar into the mud, and descended thereby and brought up the body, after its being 20 minutes in the water. After reaching the shore, by the aid of several persons and judicious management, the child was resuscitated in about half an hour. [Argus.

Baltimore, October 1.

The Philadelphia Non Intercourse expired by its own limitation on the 30th ult. but we observe by the papers of that city, received this morning, that the Board of Health have renewed it against Baltimore till the 15th of October, instant. Not one word, however, is said about New-York. How impartial! [Patriot.

We learn from the Kingston, Ulster county, Gazette, that Isaac M. Pinckney, of the firm of Pinckney & Batton, had been tried and found guilty, and sent to the State Prison for life.—Pinckney recently kept a dry good store in the village of Bloominburgh, and was tried for setting fire to their store of goods, with intent to defraud the Washington Insurance Company of this city. The prisoner is a young man, not of age, and it is stated was much affected in court.

[New-York Daily Advertiser.

COMPLIMENTARY.

The Boston Gazette of Monday remarks, "The uncommon vigilance of the municipal authority of New-York, has probably saved that city from experiencing the same calamity which has befallen Baltimore. Had the authority of the latter city been equally prompt, in causing the evacuation of Fell's Point, as the magistrates of New-York did, in removing the inhabitants of the Old slip, where the fever was spreading its contagion, within the circle of its immediate neighborhood, there is no doubt but the mortality would have been stayed in its course, and the general health of the city restored to its usual condition."

Northampton, (Mass.) Sept 28.

It may be noted as an extraornimary fact, that at the late session of the Supreme Court, not one offence was presented by the Grand Jury, nor a witness called before them.—Such an occurrence, we understand the Attorney General states, has not happened before in the course of his professional life.

YELLOW FEVER AT NATCHEZ.

We have seen a letter from a respectable physician at Natchez, which states that the yellow fever had broken out there. It first appeared on the 5th of September: on the 8th five deaths were announced; and such was the panic, that during heavy rains five-sixths of the inhabitants had fled to the country. It was thought that in two days not more than 100 persons would be left in the town. No new case occurred on the 8th.

[Philadelphia Union.

Messrs. E. & C. Smith have advertised in a Utica paper, a new invention for excavating the earth and for raising stone. It is stated that two of these machines are now in operation on the great western canal—that each actually "raises one ton twelve feet, and carries it off seventy feet, and returns again the empty box to the place where it was taken up, in the space of one minute and an half. This is performed by one horse, and two men; one man attends the horse, the other attends the boxes, to unhook two hooks from the empty box and hook them again to the next fullest box, when that is raised, carried off, and returns in the same manner." [Albany Argus.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.

David Henry and Solomon Harvey, sons of Solomon Hamilton, esq. of Canojaharie, Montgomery county, have learned to repeat the book of St. John, containing 879 verses, and likewise 77 lines of Dr. Young's Night Thoughts—140 lines of Cowper's Poems—16 lines of Milton's Paradise Lost—81 lines of Pope—48 lines of Thomson's Seasons—78 lines of Ogilvie, together with a number of select pieces, from Addison, Smerrick, Swift, Stern, Everette, and others: the Chronological Table, by Morse, from the creation to the birth of Christ—the Analysis of Sounds, together with the Multiplication Table, Pence Table, &c. &c. They are twins, and not yet six years old.

SMALL CHANCE.

The Common Hall of this city have come to a determination to issue 20,000 dollars, in one and two dollar notes, receivable in payment of the city taxes. The plates are in the hands of Mr. Brooks, engraver, in this city, and are nearly completed—only 15,000 dollars are issued at present, in a certain proportion of ones and twos. Though they only purport to be receivable in a certain way, yet they will no doubt be receivable from hand to hand, as a circulating medium in all transactions. [Richmond Enquirer.

From the Aurora.

A merchant was called upon by a broker who knew him to be in want of money, with an offer of a large sum, for one year, at one and a half per cent a month, the proceeds to be paid part in money and part in certain bank stock, at 5 per cent or more above the market price. The merchant revolted at the extortionate demand—but being in the hands of the banks, and not knowing how to raise the money snugly in any other way, for the notes were not to be shewn in the market, but to be placed in a private confidential quarter, he was at length compelled to accept the proposition.—The notes became due, and were paid, and, monstrous to relate, notwithstanding the precaution used to secret the usurer, he was discovered to be the confidential friend of the plundered merchant, who had been consulted by him upon his financial arrangements, and who knew all about his affairs.

RAPE.

We observe by the Boston papers, that Peter Johnson, of Berkshire county, Massachusetts, had been tried for a Rape, on Charity Booth, and sentenced to be hung.

Chief Justice Parker, in his address to the prisoner, observed,

"You chose the still hour of the night, when the poor defenceless victim of your brutality, with her two infant children (in the necessary absence of the husband and father, their natural protector) were asleep, for the violation of the humble but peaceable dwelling, and after the most fierce and cruel attacks, and being repulsed as long as the strength and courage of the sufferer continued, you at last succeeded in your diabolical purpose. Surely nothing can be more worthy of death, than the invasion of the peaceful dwelling house in the hour of darkness, for the purpose of perpetrating so foul a crime.

The horror of such a scene, where the only choice left to this desolate woman seemed to be the sacrifice of the lives of her children, or of her own person, to the savage fury of one who through blood and in spite of danger, was bent upon the gratification of furious passion, may be imagined but cannot be described. Had the blow which was aimed at your life by this woman, in the courageous defence of her person, taken its full effect, the law of God and the country, would have justified the act, and the voice of the community would have applauded her for the heroic deed."

Brooklyn, (L. I.) Sept. 30.

ASSAULT, ROBBERY AND BATTERY.

Yesterday as a gentleman was passing thro' one of the most public streets in this village, he was attacked, knocked down, and robbed, at noon day. He recovered himself so far as to get upon his feet, and so well plied his umbrella, that he recovered the greatest part of the property that had been forced from him; but we are sorry to add, that the robber made off with a small portion of plunder, a bloody nose, and several contusions on the ribs.

Lest, however, this act of barefaced outrage should occasion more alarm, than is intended, to the peaceable inhabitants of our village, it may not be amiss to add, that the gentleman was carrying home a bunch of turnips in his hand; that a hungry cow scented and eyed the tempting morsel; that she silently followed, and suddenly snatched it from his grasp; that a severe conflict ensued; that the cow, (which had a bar across her horns) knocked the proprietor of the turnips flat on his back; that he recovered himself, and so belabored the assailant with his umbrella, that she ran off, leaving the best part of the turnips with the rightful owner.

FROM CALCUTTA.

By the Lascar, the editors of the Boston Palladium have received Calcutta papers to the 12th May. The Epidemic Cholera still prevailed in India. An inconsiderable war still existed between the British and some of the inferior native powers.—In the contests the former appear to be always successful.

The instances of widows devoting themselves to death by fire, when the bodies of their deceased husbands are burned, are said to increase. It has been recommended to oppose the custom by special law.

One Indian writer says "a fine, would, in my opinion, have the desired effect, if I am correct in my conception of the cause, which may be found in their penurious habits. They have more wives than they can maintain living. Their relations murder them to be saved expense after their death! Opium costs but little, and fire not much."

NEW BAILEY COURT HOUSE, MANCHESTER,
Friday August 20.

Hunt was placed at the bar. He looked boldly round. Mr. Norris addressed him to this effect: "Henry Hunt:—The prosecutors are perfectly prepared to go into evidence in support of the charges upon which you were apprehended but other evidence has come before the magistrates of the highest importance, and they have deemed it their duty to lay the whole body of it before the law officers of the crown, to advise upon it. The magistrates, whose organ I am, have therefore unanimously deemed it their duty to remand you upon a charge of HIGH TREASON."

Hunt. I presume I am not allowed to say any thing?

The Bench. No.

Hunt. I beg to state one word. I am perfectly innocent of the charge, and ready to meet it.

Hunt then bowed to the bench and went down.

Joseph Johnson was brought up. He appeared much agitated.

Mr. Norris addressed him in the same words as to Hunt. Johnson said nothing, but bowed and retired.

John Thacker Saxton was brought up. He bowed slightly. After Mr. Norris had addressed him as he did the others, Saxton said, "Am I to consider myself committed on that charge?"

Mr. Norris. You are detained on that charge; not finally committed.

John Knight was the next. He said nothing, but was addressed as the others.

James Moorhouse smiled very contemptuously. After Mr. Norris had remanded him on the charge of High Treason, Moorhouse took up his white hat,* which was close to him, and said, "I presume it's my hat you mean, and not me. I am ready to meet the charge."

* Most of the leaders wore while hats.

A short time since an officer, who resides in the town of Athlone, had all his children in the hooping cough; there was a pet monkey in the house, who absolutely took the disorder, and hooped so like the children that it was impossible to discriminate between them. All the little ones happily recovered, but the monkey, notwithstanding the greatest care, died of the disorder. [London paper.

It is asserted in a Liverpool paper that the Waterloo steam packet of that place, beat the Savannah steam ship, in a race round the Rock Perch. The force of the Savannah is stated to be between 70 and 80 horse power, and that of the Waterloo two engines of 3 horse power each.

The churches and chapels in England of the established religion, amount to 11,573; and yet it is said there are almost four millions of people destitute of the means of public worship.

FROM BUENOS AYRES, AUG. 5.

Received by an arrival at Baltimore.

The American schooner Montezuma, of Baltimore, was captured on the coast of Peru, in April, by Lord Cochrane's squadron, on account of having, as Lord Cochrane states in his official report, munitions of war contracted for by Chevalier Onis.

Lord Cochrane having made an excursion along the coast of Peru to the northward, left the greater part of the squadron at Callao, under command of Admiral Blanco, who before his return left the station, but put into Valparaiso in want of provisions. The utmost activity prevailed to supply the fleet and make them renew the blockade, while Blanco was arrested to be tried by a court martial.

Lord Cochrane had made several captures, and taken several sums of money out of neutral vessels, after having ascertained them to be Spanish property.

We have much talk here of the war accounts from Gibraltar, respecting the Spanish expedition from Cadiz. God forbid we should have any fear of them.

Republican principles are very popular here; and young as this country is in financial concerns, they only owe one million and a half of dollars. Let them have only ten years more, and they will give an example to the world of what a people can do in spite of every prejudice, and in spite of internal enemies, even without foreign aid.

Our American commerce to Buenos Ayres is of no value. British imports have been very great; the markets extensively depressed, and no spirit of speculation. Our shops are all filled with active young creoles, who are getting well forward in the world.—Produce scarce—prices high. Ox hides 32 to 34 rials—sheep's wool 18.

FIRE-EATER.

Mons Chaber, the celebrated fire-eater, exhibited his wonderful capability of resisting the effects of heat, at the theatre, Penzance, on the night of Monday last. After going through the various feats of standing in melted lead, eating burning torches, &c. he concluded by getting into a frame work, on which was hung a number of rockets, and in which he was to set fire, whilst he remained exposed to the flame, while his clothes were literally burnt from his body. On exhibiting this experiment, the house became filled with smoke, and the sulphurous smell became so intolerable, that the auditory were quickly forced to seek for a purer atmosphere.—But as the means of egress did not allow of their doing this as quickly as was necessary, several persons fainted, and a scene of general confusion ensued. The screams for assistance became loud and piercing; a cry of fire was raised, and the crowd that quickly assembled, lost no time in breaking through the roof, in order to extricate those imprisoned within, who, by tumbling over each other, had nearly blocked up the ordinary passages. Happily this expedient, by allowing the smoke to evaporate, and giving an opportunity of removing to the open air, those who had become insensible, prevented a fatal termination of the disaster, which, in all probability, would have otherwise occurred.

[London paper.

From the New-York Evening Post, Sept. 30

If the statement relative to the dispute between Com. Stewart and his officers is correct, I have no hesitation in saying, that he is right, and they are wrong. In an order for a court-martial, time and place is mentioned, and it is to be presumed that the ship commanded by the president was named; whether or not, is of little consequence

Where the proceedings commenced, there they were to be finished, except an alteration in circumstances made it impracticable. The proceedings of a court martial are not finished, until they are revised, signed, sealed, and sent to him by whose authority the court was instituted. The finishing act of the court was done out of the common and proper routine of duty, out of the jurisdiction of the United States: the final act, therefore, vitiated the whole mass. The commodore, for this or for any other reason that seemed to him good, had a right to disapprove the sentence, liberate the prisoner, and dissolve the court. He did not order the court to be dissolved, and if the first order for assembling, had given power to try such other prisoners as should be brought before the court, it might have gone on to try them.—The Commodore could not be placed in this predicament. Nevertheless, he was actually tried and censured by those under whose jurisdiction he could not possibly be. The business of the officers who thought themselves aggrieved by the decision of their commander, was to suffer in silence, until his superior, the President of the United States, through his secretary for the department of the navy, gave them relief. However meritorious and respectable those gentlemen are and however delicately the authority of their country, to which they have done so much honor, may desire to treat them—they will be told that they have done wrong. Sir, there can be no liberty or equality in an army or navy; no right of man but what the regulation of service and the articles of war give. And every man, soldier and sailor, when he enters the service, knows or ought to know, that his duty is to obey, and to suffer in silence, until the wrongs he may suppose he has received, can be redressed by an appeal to the superior of him who inflicted them. Let us not hear, Mr. Coleman, of criminations and recriminations, of resolves, and rejudging of superiors in our army and navy; let such things be put down at once, or we may live to see it put to vote, whether it is fitting and proper to attack or run away from an enemy.

One whose duty for thirteen years it was to obey.

THE GERMAN INTELLIGENCER.

In a late article an author has been put into city arrest; and in Cologne, an officer of justice.

In Germany an association has been formed for the promotion of German trade and manufactures. The members amounting to 10,000, have a respectable and influential delegation at the different courts.

On the 16th of July the Chamber of Delegates for Bavaria closed their important session at Munich. Before the adjournment an animated debate took place on a motion made by Deputy Duttlinger: to present an address of thanks to the Grand Duke for steadfastly resisting the incessant arrogance of the Roman See! Deputy Dreier opposed the motion with great warmth, stating that the Chamber had no right to pass such a vote, as the Church had nothing to do with the State.—Duttlinger replied: rather a Schism, than a Church Power independent of the State. At the same time he reminded the Chamber of the tremendous appearances of Hildebrandism, in the history of Emperor Henry IV. The motion was carried by a vast majority.

Perhaps it will be known to some of the readers, that some time since the Pope seemed disposed to exercise an authority in Bavaria, to which the government told him he had no right whatever!

In the department of the Meuse several ancient coins have lately been discovered; one of them, which had been struck by order of the King of France, Henry II. in 1552, when he conquered Lorraine represents a Liberty Cap between two poinards, with the inscription, Liberty; and the words, Henry, protector of Germany, and her captive Princes.

The following article is from the Hamburgh Correspondent of the 27th of July.

In July the heat was so great in Italy as to induce the Emperor of Austria to return to Vienna in the beginning of August.

Professor Bavoux in Paris used the following expressions when requesting his hearers to abstain from the usual marks of their applause: 'Gentlemen, the manner in which you evince your applause, though flattering, is painful to me; a professor is not like an actor on the stage. I request all those who have any taste for my lectures to hear them in silence, without manifesting their satisfaction any other way.'

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been recommended to the Mayor and Common Council of Alexandria, by the Clergy of the town, that a day be set apart as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, for the various blessings we enjoy; and the Common Council concurring in this recommendation, have, by an order passed on the 30th day of September, 1819, appointed Thursday, the 7th day of October, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer: I do, therefore, recommend to the citizens of this town, that the said 7th day of October, be religiously observed as a day of THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER, to Almighty God, for the blessings we enjoy, and that those blessings may be continued to us.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 1st day of October, 1819.

(L. S.) JACOB HOFFMAN, Mayor.

☞ The thanksgiving recommended by the mayor and council, for Thursday next, (7th inst.) will be celebrated in the following manner, agreeably to a mutual arrangement among the ministers of the Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Methodist, and Baptist congregations:—

Divine Service will be performed, in the First Presbyterian Church, in the morning, at 11 o'clock, and a sermon delivered by the the Rev. Mr. Harrison.—At Christ Church, in the afternoon, the sermon by the Rev. Dr. Wilmer.—At the Methodist Meeting-House, at candle light, the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Wells.

☞ The young Gentleman, a non-resident, who yesterday, in a jest, took from the desk of a store on King street, several Bank and Corporation notes, is advised to return the amount, either by person or through the post-office, or publicity will be given to his name. As what he has done may be considered by him as a joke, he is now apprised that no familiarity can justify him in retaining the money.

Correct Information.

THE stock advertised for sale by the Mechanics' Bank as standing in our name, is not our property. Our stock note thereon has been continued, under heavy and disproportioned curtailments, ever since March 1818, for the use of the real owner, a respectable mechanic of this place, because he could not obtain leave, upon a transfer, to substitute his stock note for our's. We have no interest in said stock beyond the sum that will retire the said stock note, and we do not think it proper to advance more money than we have done for curtailments.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior court of chancery for the district of Fredericksburg in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next,

4000 Acres of Land,

lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg.—The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d inst. as a runaway, a negro man called BEN HENDERSON, supposed to be the property of George Thornton, of King George county. The said negro is about 50 years of age; 5 feet 6 inches high; bald head; and a shoemaker by trade. The owner is desired to come prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. WILLIAM MASON.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. WM HAWLEY, Washington, Rev. WM. H. WILMER, Alexandria, Rev. OLIVER NORRIS, Alexandria, Rev. REUEL KEITH, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
